TAYLOR COUNTY INCREASES TOURIST DEVELOPMENT TAX
FROM TWO PERCENT TO THREE PERCENT
BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 2006

Effective January 1, 2006, sales tax dealers in Taylor County must begin collecting tourist development tax at the rate of 3% for transient rental transactions occurring within the county. This increase from 2% to 3% is the result of the Taylor County Board of County Commissioners' adoption of Ordinance No. 2005-11 on October 18, 2005. Effective January 1, 2006, the combined tax rate for Taylor County transient rentals will be 10 percent. This consists of:

- 6% State sales tax
- 1% Discretionary sales surtax
- 3% Tourist development tax (2% through December 31, 2005)

The tourist development tax must be collected by every person in Taylor County who rents, leases, or lets for a consideration any living quarters or accommodations in any hotel, motel, apartment house, multiple unit structure (e.g., duplex, triplex, condominium), rooming house, tourist or mobile home court (trailer court, R.V. camp, etc.), single family dwelling, garage apartment, beach house or cottage, cooperatively-owned apartment, condominium parcel or mobile home for a term of six months or less. These taxable transactions are defined as "transient rentals." Transient rentals that are exempt from sales tax are also exempt from the tourist development tax.

For monthly and quarterly filers this new rate will be reflected in your 2006 Sales Tax Coupon books and instructions. If you are a semi-annual or annual filer, your 2006 tax returns mailed from this office will have the new transient rental rate printed on the coupons.
